

Resume Basics

What is a Resume?

Let's start with a question:

"If you had to market yourself in one page, what would you write?"

A resume is your personal marketing document. It tells the employer:

- Who you are
 - What you know
 - What you've done
 - What you can do for them

Essential Components of a Resume

1. Header

Contains:

- Your full name
- Phone number
- Professional email
- LinkedIn profile (optional)

Why is this important?

Because it's your identity. Just like writing your name on an exam paper.

2. Objective or Summary Statement

Objective is for freshers.

Summary is for experienced candidates.

Example (Fresher):

A motivated B.Com graduate seeking an entry-level position in accounting where I can apply my analytical and organizational skills.

3. Education

- Mention in reverse chronological order (latest first)
- Include: Degree, Institute, Year, CGPA/Percentage

Example:

Bachelor of Commerce | Delhi University | 2024 | 8.2 CGPA

4. Work Experience / Internships (if any)

- List Company Name, Role, Duration, and Key responsibilities

Example:

Intern, Tata Consultancy Services

Jan 2023 – Mar 2023

- Worked on Excel reports for financial analysis
 - Automated daily reconciliation tasks

5. Skills

List technical skills (like MS Excel, Python, Java) and soft skills (like communication, teamwork).

Can you prove it? Only list skills you've used or can demonstrate.

6. Projects / Achievements

- Academic Projects

- Competitions won
 - Certifications (Coursera, Udemy etc.)

7. Extracurriculars / Volunteer Work

Employers like well-rounded personalities.

Example:

Volunteered at NSS camp to teach underprivileged students.

8. Formatting Tips

- Keep it one page (max 2 if experienced)
 - Use simple fonts like Calibri or Arial
 - Keep margins clean
 - Save as PDF before sending

Practical Exercise

Let's make your resume right now!

1. Open Google Docs or MS Word
2. Choose a resume template (or blank)
3. Fill in the following sections:
 - Header
 - Objective
 - Education
 - Experience / Internship
 - Skills
 - Projects

- Extracurriculars

What is ATS (Applicant Tracking System)?

What if a machine filters your resume before a human?

ATS = Resume Screening Software

- Filters resumes using keywords
 - Checks for formatting
 - Decides if resume goes to HR

How to Make Your Resume ATS-Friendly?

- Use standard fonts (Arial, Calibri)
 - Avoid tables, columns, graphics
 - Use simple headings
 - Add keywords from the job posting
 - Start bullet points with action verbs

Common Resume Mistakes

- Spelling & grammar errors
- Saving file as `ResumeFinalFinal2.pdf`
- Fancy fonts or colors
- Missing keywords
- Generic, same resume for every job

Socratic Reflection

Let's think together:

- What is the one thing in your past experience you're proud of?
 - If a recruiter has only 6 seconds, what would you want them to see?

Know More: Frequently Asked Questions

Q1. Should I include a photo?

A: No, it's not required in India unless the job asks for it.

Q2. Can I add fake internships?

A: Absolutely not. You may get caught during interviews or background checks.

Q3. What if I have no internships?

A: Focus on academic projects, certifications, and extracurriculars.

Q4. Can I write my resume in Hindi or any regional language?

A: Use English, as it's the professional language for most Indian jobs.

Q5. Should I tailor my resume for each job?

A: Yes! Highlight relevant skills for each position you apply for.

Remember: A resume doesn't get you a job, it gets you an interview. Make it count.
